

QUESTION BANK

UNIT – 1

4 MARKS

1. Define software and engineering.
2. Define software engineering.
3. Define the features of software.
4. List out the software applications.
5. Define software evolution.
6. Explain the various stages takes place in software evolution process.
7. Define project charter.
8. List out the various process models using for project development.
9. Define Lehman's law for software evolution.
10. Write short notes on software paradigm.
11. List out the needs for software engineering.
12. List out the software operational characteristics.
13. List out the software transition characteristics.
14. List out the software revision characteristics.

8 MARKS/15 MARKS/HIGHER ORDER LEVEL THINKING QUESTIONS

1. Define process framework and explain the generic process framework activities along with neat diagram.
2. Design an incremental model for a project development . How would you prioritize and organize the development of features to maximize usability and client satisfaction?
3. Explain waterfall model along with neat diagram, and also mention its merits and demerits.
4. Explain about various agility principles using in agile methodology.
5. Design a project charter for the specified case study - personalized learning platform for students.
6. Describe how V- Shaped Life cycle model provide support for project development along with neat diagram.
7. Explain about unified process model along with neat diagram.
8. Explain about spiral model for project development along with neat diagram.
9. Describe how prototype model provide support for software development.
10. Describe XP model for project development along with neat diagram.
11. Explain how Scrum model provide support for project development and what are its benefits.
12. Describe the various steps takes place in project initiation along with neat diagram.